

OUR FOUNDER – A TENACIOUS PIONEER LATE SHRI KUNDAN LAL JI

June 18, 1893 - March 4, 1966

Late Sh. Kundan Lal ji was a self-made industrialist and a man with a scientific temper. In association with great leaders such as Late Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru, he involved himself in the freedom struggle. In 1941, the visionary in Sh. Kundan Lal Ji started working towards the initiation of Quit Illiteracy Movement in Ludhiana. With an avowed aim of infusing a spirit of patriotism and nationalism among the students, he founded a school in 1941 at Daresi, in the heart of Ludhiana city. His diligent work and untiring efforts bore fruit and soon KVM became a leading name in the educational circle. The increasing demands in the field of education, helped him to set up another campus which is now in Civil Lines, Ludhiana. Kundan Vidya Mandir takes pride in becoming the first school in Punjab to get affiliation to CBSE in 1963. After the death of Shri Kundan Lal Ji, a Trust and Managing Committee comprising eminent educationists, industrialists and bureaucrats was established. Spreading its wings further, KVM has set up its new branch named Kundan International School in April, 2007 at Chandigarh.

OUR VISION

To transform every student intellectually, physically, emotionally and spiritually to become a self-confident learner with the motivation to excel. As a model global citizen, possess the humility and the wisdom to do good; be a bulwark against wrong and an untiring protector of the weak.

OUR MISSION

At Kundan Vidya Mandir, we undertake to create a safe and nurturing environment which is full of fun and opportunity for each child to learn, play and explore so that teachers can inspire and draw out every hidden talent. We strive to provide opportunities that enhance "out of the box" thinking; impart essential life skills; develop a mind-set of growth; forge lifelong friendship and become a better version of themselves every day. A temple of learning where the principles of Truth, Love and Efficiency guide every moment of the journey of the innocent curious child to become an unshakeable pillar of goodness in the community and in the world.
